Whether you're a thrill-seeker, nature lover, couple, or family, Skardu offers a world of wonder waiting to be explored.

Why Skardu is Called Pakistan's Hidden Paradise

Often overshadowed by other famous destinations, Skardu is a gem waiting to be discovered. Situated at the gateway to the world's second-highest peak, K2, and surrounded by the mighty Karakoram Range, Skardu is a place where time slows down and nature takes center stage.

What Makes Skardu Unique:

-  Unspoiled Landscapes: Towering peaks, serene lakes, and lush valleys untouched by mass tourism
-  Natural Wonders: Upper and Lower Kachura Lakes, Deosai National Park, Satpara Lake, and more
-  Cultural Treasures: Ancient forts like Shigar and Khaplu, local Balti traditions, and village life
-  Adventure Gateway: Trekking, camping, jeep safaris, fishing, and off-road exploration
-  Stargazing & Silence: Perfect escape from city noise — calm nights and clear skies

Must-Visit Destinations in Skardu

Skardu is a land of wonders — here are just a few highlights included in our 2025 tour packages:

1. Shangrila Resort (Lower Kachura Lake)

Known as “Heaven on Earth,” this picturesque lake and resort offer peace, beauty, and luxury. Perfect for relaxing walks, boating, and lakeside picnics.

2. Upper Kachura Lake

An untouched, crystal-clear lake surrounded by wild trees and silence. It's ideal for travelers looking to connect with raw nature.

3. Shigar Fort

A 400-year-old fort restored into a museum and heritage hotel. Experience the grandeur of Balti royalty and architecture.

4. Deosai National Park

Also known as “The Roof of the World,” Deosai is a high-altitude plateau covered in wildflowers, wildlife, and endless horizons. A must-visit for nature lovers.

5. Satpara Lake

A breathtaking reservoir just outside Skardu town, offering majestic views, peaceful surroundings, and optional boating.

6. Manthoka Waterfall

A magnificent 180-foot-high waterfall located in Kharmang Valley. A great spot for day trips, local food, and photography.

7. Khaplu Valley and Fort

Explore the old-world charm of Khaplu — visit the historic fort, hike through apricot orchards, and learn about Balti culture.
